3. Meeting Notes, Decisions, Issues

- Caroline Red will set up the Hanover Safety Training as well as a make up session for those who missed the April 3rd Session. She will also talk to Edd about having more trainings that contain more specific tips, scenarios (in office and home), and situations where mace maybe an option.
- Michael Brody's Presentation:

Day 1

Purpose: Describe experiences of recovery innovations as introducing peers into workforce. Look at the outcomes of having peers in services. Benefits and Challenges to creating a 70% peer based work force. Look at the change from medical model of service to recovery model of service.

Day 2

Purpose: Vision for the Future The sub-committee, which consists of Bonnie Iorfido, Kim Wildasin, Joel Richie, Lizz Brady, Rose Alberghini, Trisha Wansel, and Kathy Beaverson; needs to meet to decide what the County feels its Vision For The Future is. Once that is decided Day 2 can be planned based off of what the County feels its Vision For The Future is.

The dates that are being looked at are July 15, 2008, and July 16, 2008, to take place at the West Manchester Mall.
